

I'm not robot!

The International Association of Professional Translators and Interpreters (IAPTI) invites you to take part in its Second International Conference, which will take place in Athens, Greece, on September 20 and 21, 2014, at the beautiful Electra Palace Hotel Athens (Plaka).

IAPTI was created by a group of professional language mediators as a vehicle for promoting ethical practices in their profession and as a venue in which to establish a dialogue, without censorship and without conflicts of interest, with the aim of promoting effective professional ethics. Currently with members in 61 countries, IAPTI has made and continues to make a significant impact in the language industry.

The first IAPTI international conference in London last year was successful beyond words. Language professionals from all over the world came together to learn, share knowledge, and network. Social networks buzzed with glowing feedback on the conference, its organization, the topics presented, and the very useful professional connections that translators and interpreters were able to make. We are expecting our second conference to be equally or even more successful, with over 250 translators and interpreters. This will be an excellent opportunity for you to present your products and services and make great business connections. Whether you would like to be an exhibitor or sponsor, we invite you to book your space soon on the conference website: <https://www.iapti.org/conferenceGR/>.

Please take a look at the sponsorship packages we have put together for you. Make your selection, fill in the registration form and send it to us at grconference@iapti.org. We will follow up with you shortly after that.

We hope that you can join us. Please feel free to contact us if you need additional information on this event.

We look forward to seeing you in Athens!

Yours sincerely,

Maria Karra
